

- Can I change the password and email address associated with the account?

Can I change the password and email address associated with the account?

Yes, you will be able to change the password and email address associated with the account once it's delivered. Please note that changing the password/email address indicates acceptance and delivery of item. All accounts login details are recorded and submitted as evidence of delivery.
